Boo was a man that enjoyed life to it's fullest. He did not know a stranger which blessed him with many wonderful friends from all over the world. He loved spending time with his family and friends in his beautiful yard. He had a green thumb and was often brought plants to bring back to life. He enjoyed cooking and cooked for many events including three Dixie Youth World Series, the annual the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Barbeque Cook-off in Houston, Texas, and too many other events to even be named. He loved his family and gave a deeper meaning to "daddy" and "paw-paw". He loved supporting his grandchildren by attending football games, baseball games, dance recitals, concerts and choir events, chapel services, and any other events that his "babies" were involved in. He will ultimately be remembered for his sincere and honest personality.
